Temperance Life-Bitters, AND CHINESE BLOOD-PILLS. The Greatest Secret Discovered! PLEGE purge has been the cry for the last few years. It has been enthusiastically tried and yet sufferers have multiplied and died; but too much has been done without the tonic to follow and sustain the system. Purge you must. The sickly humors of the blood must be carried off, or the accumulation of them prevented. Prevent, then the growth of such humors.

Why do the Chinese live to such immense ages and still retain the powers of youth or middle age? Because they purify the blood. The Chinese Blood Pills, so called because they work upon and cleanse the blood, are the standard remedy. These Pills will do it, and the Temperance Bitters taken as directed will strengthen the system and prevent the accumulation of the base humors which infest the blood, and which only increase by purges unless the Bitters are taken after. Buy then these Pills and Bitters—Take weekly the Pills and daily the Bitters—and you are or have been invalids for days, weeks, months or years, you will find the sickly humors drawn off—and prevented from returning—and the salubrious hue of sickness change rapidly to the full blooming glow of health and youthful buoyancy.

There are cases on numerous of these brilliant effects that time and space forbid an attempt to put them down. Buy and use these medicines, and use no other, and health and strength shall be yours. See wrapper and directions that come with them. FRAUDULENT COUNTERFEITS will be attempted. Buy no remedy of the kind unless it have my name O. C. LIN M.D. on the wrapper, and also the notice as follows: Entered according to Act of Congress A. D. 1841 by O. C. LIN, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

Warranted the only genuine. Messrs COMSTOCK & Co. New York, are the sole wholesale Agents for the United States and all neighboring countries. DOCTOR O. C. LIN. [For sale in Bangor by G. W. LADD, corner of Smith's Block and by A. P. GUILD, Exchange Street.

DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

JOHN S. SAYWARD, Editor.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1842.

Arrival of the Steamer Unicorn at Boston. No tidings of the Caledonia.

The Steamer Unicorn arrived at Boston on Sunday last, at about half past 11 A. M.

No tidings of the Caledonia had reached Halifax when the Unicorn left - which was on Friday at 5 o'clock P. M. The Mail packet Acadia, left same morning for Boston, but has not yet arrived. The excitement at Halifax, on account of the non-arrival of the Caledonia was very great.

A son of Mr. Canard came passenger in the Unicorn - which steamship takes the place of the Caledonia - and was to leave Boston on Tuesday with the mails and passengers for England. If when she reaches Halifax, the Caledonia has not arrived, she will sail immediately for Liverpool.

The Halifax Herald states, that the Unicorn was despatched on Thursday to the eastward, in consequence of a report that two fishermen had seen a large ship at some distance from them, apparently immovable. She returned the same night, however, without any tidings from the Caledonia.

The late gale was very severe at Halifax, and all the other ports in Nova Scotia. Many chimneys and buildings, were blown down. Two vessels, one a large brig and the other a schooner, broke from their moorings at Dartmouth, and went to pieces near Black's Mills.

It is still hoped that she may have been detained, and may yet survive, but fears, under all the circumstances, seem determined to get above the hopes.

Protection to American Industry.

The Shoe and Leather manufacturers of Massachusetts hold a great Convention in Boston this day to consult upon the best measures to secure the protection of their great branch of industry in which they are engaged.

The people are moving, and it will be seen by the following that they can have a little technical not in their movements. They are determined not to be saddled with the support of foreign laborers, and have earnestly into the matter, and will pull together until they have traced out every thread of the subject, and got the U. States Congress teaming in the right direction. At all events, it is said, "the Shoemakers are wearing strong." Not only their feet, but their whole soul is in motion. They are wide awake to their interest, and are determined to stick to the Tariff, to the last, at least until the law, which goes into force next July, is ripped up, repaired, and pegged together, with Protection to American Labor.

The ball is rolling, and the law must be heeled-tapped the shoe must be stiffened and, by lifting up the Shoemakers, well New England will be on their tops.

There will be no gun at the Convention but the Memorial to Congress will be stitched together, by the craft giving the understandings of our Representatives a hint that their Bosses will give them the sack, and let them have occasion to tramp, unless they toe the mark.

They must fend off foreign invasion, and tack on a specific duty, tarred with the liquor of judgment, and carried with the oil of reason which, when accomplished, will be strapped down, and bound together with the cords of Industry.

Startling Fact.

The Charleston Courier says, that letters have been received in that city from Boston, stating that large orders have recently been despatched to East Indies for cotton! Ships sail from Boston and Salem with ice, and return laden with this raw material. The simple fact has set the whole South in commotion! Their celebrated cotton crop, the only thing of substantial value they export, is in jeopardy, and, forsooth, they are now crying out for protection for a tariff! One little fact demonstration in a small way, has utterly upset all the elaborate and learned theories of the South on the subject of protection.

We learn that the Political Anti-Slavery party in this city, nominated, last evening, Nathan B. Wiggins, as their candidate for Mayor. We do not suppose that Mr. Wiggins will accept the nomination, as he, in connection with the great body of our citizens, must be satisfied with our present Mayor, whose long acquaintance with the affairs of the city, and the deep interest he feels in its honor and prosperity, eminently qualify him for the discharge of the duties of his office.

By an arrival at New York from Carthage, by way of Bermuda, we learn that the British brig Charybdis, Lieut. De Courcey, had captured a Carthaginian corvette and two schooners in the engagement the corvette lost her Commodore and twenty-five men.

The force of the brig was fifty-five men.

Six of the mutineers of the Texan schooner, San Antonio, have been arrested at New Orleans, viz: Seymour Oswald, Sergeant of Marines; Thomas D. Sheppard, sail-maker's mate; Edward Keener; Benjamin Pompilly; and Edward Williams.

A foolish report was in circulation in Boston, that the U. S. schooner Grampus must have been lost during the gale of the 16th, as a portion of her hull or upper works and boat, had floated ashore on Block Island. There is no probability in the story, whatever.

Mr. Clay, in an incidental debate in the Senate on Feb. 27, stated that he had no apprehensions of a war on the Creole case or any other of the questions at issue between our country and Great Britain.

For the Whig & Courier.

Mr. Editor: Last evening I gallanted my dear old grandmother to the Washingtonian meeting at the Hammond Street Church, and a more delighted creature, I never beheld, but, that is not strange, for who that has lived long in the world could be otherwise than delighted at the change which has been, and is now taking place on the face of society in relation to the moderate use of ardent spirits? Now, every man, woman and child, who has lived in Bangor for nine months past, knows very well who and what the Washingtonians are; and what they are driving at, but it does not follow that the settlers about Nockataw, Chesuncook and Katahdin, are yet fully enlightened, indeed, I know they are not even, my honored grandmother, until last evening, had never heard of that very respectable sect called "Washingtonians," and, of course, I left it with the lecturer to enlighten her - and if I may judge by her remarks after meeting, he succeeded admirably.

"Well, there, (quoth she) I have heard in my day, the Quakers and the Shakers - the old lights and the new lights the essentials and non-essentials but these Washingtonians do beat 'em all. By way of illustration and improvement I have heard ministers tell good anecdotes, but that turkey story was the crowner; 'quit, quit, quit' says she, 'you needn't come here crying 'quit quit quit,' you should have thought of that before you lost your feathers.' And now, John, continued the old lady, whenever I chance to meet a gentleman with a red nose, or a moderate drinker, I shall always be wondering whether he will quit in time to save his feathers. I really wish, John, it was fashionable in Bangor for the women to speak in meeting, for I should like to give my testimony before Heaven."

I am heartily glad, Mr. Editor, that the next meeting will be held at the City Hall, because if the old lady should take a notion to give her testimony, (as she probably will) there will be very few present to hear her; it is for this reason principally that I write, to induce as many as possible of our good citizens to stay away; but if there are those who will still insist on going, I beg of them to restrain their risibles until the services are ended, and thus confer a favor on an affectionate GRANDSON.

N. B. All who have had their feathers ruffled, or who have been picked as bare as an icicle, are expected to attend.

Alpheus Felch, Esq. of Monroe has been appointed Auditor General of Michigan by the Governor.

[Mr. Felch was from Limerick in this State, and graduated at Bowdoin College in 1827.] Portland Advertiser.

And we may add, read law in this city, and first practiced in Houlton.

We have a warm rain this morning, and the usual quantity of mud under such circumstances.

The Signs of the Times.

The situation of our country, in whatever aspect it may be viewed, whether as to politics or business, whether as to the present or the future, is in the highest degree gloomy and alarming. A state of things exists which demands the most serious reflection from every citizen of the nation.

In estimating the actual condition and future prospects of business, we must take into consideration the fact that we have nothing like a uniform and sound currency - without which, it is as impossible that the trade of the country should flourish, as for the human body to be in health and vigor when the blood is impure, or the great arteries tied up. Besides this fatal obstruction, there is a death dealing depreciation of property going on, over the whole country, owing to two great causes, operating with the force and universality of gravitation.

The first of these is that we are in debt, and keeping in debt, to foreign countries a vast amount, worse even than political slavery. Our credit abroad being destroyed, our creditors there are demanding their specie, and silently, but in a thousand constantly running rills of silver and gold, they are breasting us at every pore. This process of emaciation is dwindling down our specie, and the value of property is shrivelling in the same proportion. Houses, lands, merchandise, wages, are all declining in price and the obligation of those who are in debt, are becoming proportionally magnified. A thousand dollars is a more formidable sum to the debtor to-day, than two thousand was five years ago, and many a man is doomed to bankruptcy, through this withering process, who estimates his property now at much more than the amount of his debts.

The second great cause of evil is, the universal distrust that pervades the public mind, and operates, with a paralytic power, on the body politic, as decaying as does the mephitic gas of the mine upon the human lungs. Business never breathes freely in a panic; its functions are always either suspended, or spasmodically exercised, when every man suspects the credit of his neighbor.

The result of the combined action of these two causes is manifest, even in New England, where they have operated with less force than in other parts of the country. Here we have had some good business, and hopes of improvement have been entertained, but these are fast disappearing, in view of acts that cannot be winked out of sight. It cannot be disguised that the country, even here, is poor; thousands, beside, are struggling in the deepening mire of debt, wages are low, the prices of all the products of labor are so reduced, as to withdraw inducements to actively trade is embarrassed and profligate enterprise is but the sure road to disaster.

This may be depicted a picture too sombre and darkly colored, and perhaps there may be a few bright spots which are not yet overshadowed by this cloud of gloom. Taking the whole country, however, and even including New England, it is but too true and faithful a delineation of the signs of the times, and this all-pervading darkness is revealed still the more hopeless and alarming from the consideration that, while the existing evils have sprung almost entirely from political sources, there is no present promise of remedy or relief from those sources.

The state of things at Washington presents an anomaly in the history of legislation. The administration, without five supporters in the Senate, or fifty in the House, is of course powerless except so far as it may suggest plans of action. The two great parties are disorganised and warring, and the country has bleeding wounds.

them, the leaders - the master spirits of the times - are squabbling over its prostrate form, for possession of the body. The scene is indeed revolting for it is a sad reality, that the only feasible measure of relief to the country are denied to the country, and for no other reason than that certain political aspirants wish to use the questions that grow out of those measures, for their own selfish and sinister purposes.

There is not a man in Congress who does not well know that a sound currency is necessary to business, that the derangement of the currency is the work of Locofoco politicians, beginning with Andrew Jackson, that the restoration of the currency is within the power of Congress; and that suitable action, on the part of that body, would result in immediate improvement. There is not a man in Congress who does not know that this is the first step which should be taken, and an indispensable one to a restoration of prosperity, and yet they seem occupied, like wolves, in rending their victim, rather than like patriots, seeking the health and recovery of the wasted and emaciated land.

The necessity of a barrier along our Atlantic coast, to protect our own interests from the pauper rivalry of Europe, and also to keep the accumulations of labor among ourselves, rather than to have them drawn off by foreign bachelors thus holding us in a state of individual and national poverty, is as plain as the necessity of a currency. There is not a man in Congress, who does not know this, and yet, for purposes wholly personal, selfish, partisan this great scheme of security, protection, and relief, is used as a mere rostrum for speeches made for political effect, in local districts, or a bugbear, which is to frighten the people out of their senses, while the political burglars steal into possession of power and treasure.

It is already a matter of general observation, that the real business interests of the country are not duly represented in Congress, and in the State Legislatures. It is seen that, with the exception of the two Rhode Island members, the whole Senate of the United States consists of men bred to one profession - that of the law. It is also noticed that about three-fourths of the House of Representatives are of the same profession. May it not, in part at least, be ascribed to this fact, that there are so many political wrangles, so much indifference to the public interests, and so much neglect of the public business? We mean no disrespect to the legal profession, when we say that a whole Congress of professional men is not so likely to understand the true, practical interests of the great mass of the people, nor so likely to feel a sympathy with them, as a Congress drawn from all the different classes and occupations of society. The question whether these remarks are entitled to much consideration, we must leave to our readers to decide - but one thing is perfectly certain, and that is, that there is some radical error in the selection of men to manage the important public matters which devolve upon Congress. They are, many of them, either grossly deficient in the requisite practical knowledge, or they are criminally negligent in the exercise of that knowledge for the public benefit. That all political power should be held by any one profession, is an evil in itself, and when that power has been most shamefully abused, it becomes the obvious duty of the people, upon every principle of self protection, to adopt a prompt and adequate remedy for the abuse.

The source of evil of which we have here spoken, is not the only one that is becoming manifest to the nation. The arrogance of some of the members from the Southern slave-holding States, not only in straining the right of petition, and burying it beneath the threshold of the Capitol, but in buying over a few dough-faced traitors from the free States, masking them under the hypocritical title of democracy, and thus, by boasting and bullying, forcing upon the nation a scheme of policy to crush free labor, and promote slave labor, is also becoming more and more apparent, more and more intolerable, and is getting to be better and better understood.

For these, and many other reasons, we say to Congress, each and every member of it, take good heed to your ways. There is a deep ground swell, that betokens the coming earthquake. If the present Congress adjourns, without settling the Tariff question on a proper basis, a satisfactory basis; and if, furthermore, a system for the restoration of the currency be not adopted, in a spirit of patriotic compromise, then the people will witness the National Legislature, at the next election, with the whirlwind of public indignation.

MAINE LEGISLATURE.

[Augusta Correspondence.]

State House, Augusta, }
Monday, Feb. 27, 1842. }
The House assembled at 9 o'clock this morning. The Resolves in favor of John H. Pillsbury and another, being first in order, were taken up, Mr. McKenry withdrew (the motion for the previous question, and the resolves were laid upon the table, and Wednesday evening next assigned for the further consideration of them. The House then proceeded to the business on the table.

Papers from Senate disposed of in concurrence. The report of the Committee, on so much of the Governor's Message as relates to an alteration in the time of the meeting of the Legislature came from the Senate, that branch accepting the report of a Legislature independent, on the subject the House non-concurred, recommended the report with instructions to bring in a resolve.

Resolve in favor of James Stickney et al, indefinitely postponed. Leave to withdraw on the petition of Elizabeth Cordage, praying for a pension to be granted her in kind - of Henry C. Harvey, for an abatement on bond given to the State, for timber cut on the Aroostook - of Carlton Hole, that an allowance may be made him in pursuance of an agreement made with Jeremiah Goodwin, when Treasurer of the State.

Legislation inexpedient, on an order relating to the altering of the common law in certain cases.

Passed to be engrossed, Resolves in favor of Oliver Frost, as amended for the payment of certain accounts against the State. An Act to set off part of Newmark annex the same to Bridgton. An Act to incorporate the Salford Manufacturing Company.

An Act to authorize the building or extending a Wharf, in Bucksport, referred to the next Legislature.

Read and to-morrow assigned. An Act additional to an Act regulating the Militia. An Act to incorporate the town of Centerville. An Act concerning the Passamaquoddy Indians in a new draft. An Act to repeal the 42d Section of the 16th Chapter of the Revised Statutes. An Act to incorporate the Bath Mutual Insurance Company. An Act to authorize the town of Addison to build a bridge across Pleasant River.

Resolve directing the Land Agent to locate and sub-divide certain lands. An Act to provide for the expenditures of the Government in part.

The Committee on Banks and Banking, reported a bill in relation to an alteration in the law regulating Banks, and for the increasing of the number of Bank Commissioners, which was laid on the table, and 300 copies ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Barnes of Portland, Ordered, That the Select Committee chosen to consider certain orders of Council in relation to the Hospital for the Insane, be discharged from the consideration of the subject, and the same be referred to the Governor and Council.

Mr. Morse moved that the House take up the report in part, but the motion did not prevail.

Petitions of B. A. Gardiner et al, for leave to build bridge to connect Eastport with Perry of John H. Copeland for allowance for services in the Aroostook Expedition of the town of Bowdoin for a separate representation of A. Matthews, for the repeal of the 27th sect of the 5th chap. of the Rev. Statutes, presented and referred.

The bill making some alteration in the law respecting Hawkers and Pedlars was taken up and discussed. This bill provides that all articles manufactured in the State may be sold by pedlars providing they are the manufacturers of the articles.

Mr. Dunn of Poland, moved to amend the bill so as to allow citizens of other States to exercise the trade of Hawkers and Pedlars, in this State.

This amendment was advocated by Mr. Smart of Troy, Mr. Otis of St. George, and opposed by Mr. Lyman of Lubec, pending this motion, the House adj.

CONGRESS.

Two days later from Washington. Funeral of Hon. Lewis Williams. Death of Gov. Monroe, of Ohio.

Correspondence of the Jour. of Commerce. Washington, Thursday, Feb. 24, 1842.

The death of the Hon. Lewis Williams has thrown a gloom over the city and Congress. The proceedings of both Houses will, of course, be suspended until Saturday, to-morrow being the day assigned for the funeral.

In the House, to-day, Mr. Rayner, of North Carolina, announced in an appropriate manner, the death of his colleague, the Hon. Lewis Williams. Mr. Rayner said, the sympathy of the House on this occasion, showed that they considered Mr. Williams, as they had long called him the father of the House.

Mr. Adams followed in a very touching and beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased. In the Senate, after the presentation of petitions, Mr. Preston made an ineffectual attempt to take up the District Bank Bill.

A resolution of Mr. Merrick, prohibiting amendments to the Appropriation Bills, for objects not authorized by law, was taken up for discussion; but a message then coming in from the House, with the resolutions in relation to the death of Mr. Williams.

Mr. Graham rose and said he had a few observations to make upon the melancholy event which had just been announced.

Mr. Graham closed by offering the customary resolutions.

Mr. Clay rose to second the resolutions, and made some eloquent remarks on the character of the deceased and the friendship which for a quarter of a century had existed between Mr. Williams and himself. Already, he said, had Congress at this session, from each of its branches, paid its annual instalment to the debt of nature, which all must discharge. A more worthy member than he who has just departed from amongst us, could hardly have been selected.

Lewis Williams, Mr. Clay said, was a faithful image of the respective State whose servant he had so long been, intelligent, quiet, unassuming, loyal to the Union, and always patriotic. Let those who survive him, profit by his example.

The resolutions were then adopted, and the Senate adjourned.

P. S. It is with regret that I inform you of the death of Gov. Morrow, of Ohio. He expired this evening about 10 o'clock.

The members of the House and of the Senate, and the Judges of the Supreme Court occupied the other seats of the Hall; and the galleries were densely crowded, particularly by the ladies. The funeral services, which were performed by the Rev. Mr. Tuston, Chaplain to the Senate, consisted of the reading of the 30th Psalm, which was exceedingly appropriate, a prayer, a sermon from the 18th chapter of Romans "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present life are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us" and the benediction.

The funeral procession was then formed, and proceeded to the Congressional burial ground, where the body was deposited.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.]

Washington, Feb. 25, 1841. The funeral of the Hon. Lewis Williams took place this day at noon. At twelve o'clock, his remains were conveyed from his late boarding house to the House of Representatives, accompanied by the Committee of Arrangements and Pall Bearers, together with the Representatives of the State of North Carolina - in both branches of Congress, and his personal friends and relatives. The body was placed in front of the Speaker's Chair, and around it were seated the President of the United States, and the heads of the Departments, besides those by whom it was accompanied thither.

The Congressional Temperance Society held its first public meeting this evening, in the House of Representatives. Mr. Briggs of Mass. presided, and resolutions were presented by Mr. Williams of Conn., Mr. Riggs, Mr. Fillmore, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Gilmer, Mr. Burnell, Mr. Geddings, and Mr. Marshall. The speakers, with the exception of a few remarks from Mr. Gilmer, and Mr. Burnell, were not members of Congress.

Captain McLane, of Baltimore, in the course of a speech, declared that he had never been drunk because drink could not make him drunk. On an average, he had drunk twelve glasses of brandy and water a day, and sometimes nineteen glasses of whiskey punch at night, but though he saw three fifths of his companions drunk around him, he was proof against its intoxicating qualities. He said he had joined the total society for the sake of example. The celebrated John Hawkins, of Baltimore, terminated the night's proceedings.

American and India Cotton.

A correspondent of the Boston Atlas states that by a table in the Liverpool Chronicle of the 4th December, it appears that the amount of American Cotton imported into Liverpool, between Jan 1st and Dec 3d, 1840, was 1,145,779 bales, while that between Jan 1st and Dec 3d, 1841, was but 804,105 bales. Decrease, 341,674 bales, or very nearly thirty per centum.

The same table shows that the import of India Cotton, during the same period in 1840 was 102,332 bales

In 1841, Increase, 40,920 " or very nearly forty per centum. Thus, while the American Cotton imported into Liverpool has decreased thirty per cent. The Indian has increased in even a larger proportion. It is the Indian only that is to be apprehended by our planters. The importation of Egyptian Cotton is shown by the same table at a ratio of thirty one per cent in a ratio of seventy per Self-feeding Shingle Machine.

THIS Invention has been lately patented by the Subscriber. He desires to call public attention to the Machine, being able confidently to guarantee its satisfactory operation at the following rate, viz. One man can cut One Thousand per hour, by hand, or by water, or other power, he can cut from Six to Eight Thousand, in the same time. The simplicity of construction, regularity of motion, and the rapidity and superiority with which it executes the work the Patentee ventures to say cannot be surpassed, if equalled by any Machine in the country.

The annexed are a few of a very large number of certificates that might be produced. This is to certify, that we have for some years been using the Machine, and have used Shingles made by Walcott's Patent Shingle Machine, and they were well formed, and of good quality, and gave perfect satisfaction.

THE SUBSIDY. TO THE LADIES. INTELLIGENT DEVELOPMENTS AND PERSONAL BEAUTY CONSIDERED IN CONNECTION WITH DOCT. FELIX GOURAUD'S POUKES SUBTILES. The regular whose study is to imitate the exquisite workmanship of nature, pours forth in his model of the human form a broad and elevated forehead. This development is not only consistent with but sometimes necessary to the possession of a high order of mental faculty. It is a true forehead is a mark of intellect, it is no less an essential element of personal beauty, and it is of importance to those, and there are many such, possessed of this prominent feature, though obscured by the encroachment of a too luxuriant growth of hair, to remove that portion of an excrescence which tends to their face only to deform it. This can be done safely, speedily, effectually, and it is used in accordance with directions, with out the least inconvenience by Dr. Felix Gouraud's Poukes Subtles. The force of the lip, when moving, or the short hair on the back of a lady's neck when too apparent, the hair of a male or female, when long upon the cheek may all be removed, and eventually the roots destroyed by the use of this preparation.
Manufactured by Dr. Felix Gouraud, 67, Walker Street, one door from Broadway, N. York. $1.00 per bottle.
GOURAUD'S EAU DE BEAUTE OR TRUE WATER OF BEAUTY. For removing freckles, Tan, Pimples, Blotches, Sores, Burns, and all Cutaneous Eruptions, realizing delicate white hands, neck and arms, and giving a healthy juvenile appearance. If $1.00 per bottle.
GOURAUD'S VEGETABLE ROUGE. Composed of material so fine and simple, imparts a delicate carnation hue to the cheek, imitable by perspiration or rubbing with a handkerchief or a linen cloth. It is 50 cents per bottle.
To be had in Bangor at the sole appointed agents, Messrs. WHITFIELD & GUILD, Druggists.

THE MOST HIGHLY APPROVED MEDICINE.

Now in general use for Coughs, Colds and all Diseases of the Lungs.

THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is believed to be the most popular medicine ever known in America for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, or Phthisis, Consumption, Whooping Cough, and Pulmonary Affections of every kind.

Dr. Samuel Merritt of Concord, N. H., writes "that he is satisfied the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam is a valuable medicine, having been used with complete success in cases which had previously resisted the most approved prescriptions."

Dr. Isaac Abell of Lempster, N. H., writes that he confidently recommends its use in all complaints of the chest, as equal to any other medicine with his knowledge.

Dr. A. W. French of Franklin, Mass., writes that after having prescribed the usual remedies without relief, and having consulted with several eminent Physicians, he has found the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam to have had the desired effect, and recommends it as a safe, convenient, and efficacious medicine.

Dr. H. M. Brown of Concord, N. H., writes that, to his knowledge, it has never disappointed the reasonable expectations of those who have used it.

A public notice is particularly cautioned against the many Counterfeits or Imitations, which have partially or wholly assumed the name of the genuine article.

Dr. J. B. Light of Salem, N. H., writes that he has used the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam for several days, occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general relief came on which had great charms, and I enjoyed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state of health, and believe it is my duty to recommend this medicine.

Yours truly, J. B. LIGHT

LORRAINE'S PILLS, OR VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE.

OF THE French College of Health, in Paris.

THE following letter was received yesterday by mail from Salem. It gives another evidence of the great success of Lorraine's Vegetable Universal Pills.

SIR I have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrofula and Cancerous Humors, which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general utility of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.

J. E. NEWHALL
Salem 21st May, 1841

The following letter from J. B. Light, Esq. is worthy of notice.

SIR I took one of Lorraine's Vegetable Pills last evening for a pain in my head that had effected me for several days occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general relief came on which had great charms, and I enjoyed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state of health, and believe it is my duty to recommend this medicine.

Family Medicine.

SIR I have used Lorraine's Pills in my family as a family medicine, and I would most earnestly recommend them to all persons as the best medicine that can be procured. I would not be without them, they operate mildly and never fail to give immediate relief. Until I used these Pills I was obliged to pay from $25 to $100 per year for medicines and physicians, since then I have had no other doctor than Dr. Lorraine's Pills. JAMES NEAL.

Lame Back.

Sarah Snow was cured of a lame back in one day, when she had been unable to dress herself with it for two weeks.

Susan Jones of Boston, cured in 3 hours of lame back and side of three weeks standing.

Sick Headache.

Mrs Bird of Providence says, that Lorraine's Pills have proved a real blessing to her. It has surpassed any thing that has been brought to the public notice. I have been cured of a sick headache that had afflicted me for years by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

THE CONDITION.

The condition upon which nature gives health to man, is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and unhealthy accumulations. Lorraine's Pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the bowels and purify the blood.

The human body is always healthy when the bowels are regular, the blood circulates freely and disease invariably commences when obstructions take place in the bowels.

The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depends upon extracts of over 50 different Vegetables all so admirably combined as to purify, nourish and invigorate the human system.

New READING BOOK for Schools.

THE MONITORIAL READER, or a Monitor's Youth, holding up to their view Models whereby to form their own Characters. BY DANIEL ADAMS, Author of Adams' New Arithmetic.

EXTRACTS FROM THE PREFACE.
The object is to supply what is believed to be the great desideratum in our schools, a series of exercises relating to what concerns the practical matters of life, truth, integrity, honesty, industry, temperance, forethought, frugality, patience, endurance of adversity, and whatever else tends to form and fix the character of youth.

We wish to impress it on the minds of those whose hands these exercises shall come now into the time of life, what is here so abundantly indicated, that "Every man is emphatically the architect of his own fortune, that with themselves it lies whether they shall ever be any thing or nothing, that a moment's capital to begin with does not weigh a whit in the balance for or against them—that coming into life with health, strength, capacity for labor, good education, a useful and respectable trade, habits of industry, sobriety, punctuality, frugality, and above all, with a GOOD AND UPRIGHT CHARACTER, they have the best of all power, moral capital, the noblest of
